Company Business Activities: We are lucky that we have a dominant position in the domestic market, and there are many undiscovered markets that we are tapping into particularly in the EU. Our business is built on the fact that Jordan has extraordinary historic, religious, cultural and natural treasures that the world wants to explore and experience. As long as we do our job, of providing fun and safe trips and targeting the markets, especially through new technology, we are confident that we will be able to continue to grow."
