

TRAINING & NETWORKING SERIES

— Argentina Edition —

Following the success of the BID for the Americas program across the world, we are launching the Training & Networking series, starting with one of the region's most dynamic markets: Argentina.

This exclusive event is designed to connect global businesses with potential suppliers and business partners in Argentina's key sectors, featuring trade, investment, and public procurement opportunities.

It's an invaluable opportunity to promote new businesses and forge new partnerships, while also gaining insights through complementary training sessions.
