How does it work?

At registration, you will be given the information about your starting position and instructions on how one should move to or sit and wait for the next meeting.

When the bell rings, each Business Speed Meeting - couple will have 8 minutes for the meeting: 4 minutes per person to present oneself, one's company and its products to another participant.

After 4 Minutes a small ring will signalize the beginning for the presentation of the other participant from the Business Speed - couple. After 8 minutes, the bell will ring again, and one of the participants should move to the next position or greet next counterpart

After 10 meetings, at the Cocktail you will have the chance to meet other participants. The List will be available at the entrance.
